Treasurer's Report:

Bank Balance as of Dec. 1st.....	$ 58.38
Thrift Account.....	$ 205.04
Obligations.....	1191.87

Mr. Puryear's report pointed out three of our most acute problems:

1. The homeless, destitute woman.
2. The undernourished child, both of pre-school and school age.
3. The general lack of adequate clothing.

The quartermaster's corps has made clothing available at greatly reduced prices. Mr. Puryear made the following suggestions as to ways of obtaining money to relieve the situations he mentioned: (1) A membership drive under trained leadership; (2) Presentation of a group of singers under the direction of Mrs. George Bell; (3) Presentation of Jules Bled-

From November 28th, 483 meals have been served to school children.

Christmas cheer has been promised as follows: Christmas baskets through Salvation Army, Fraternities etc. Clothing for 50 children through Elks' Lodge; Party for 50 children at Sayre Club by Contemporary; Party for 50 children at Urban League Opportunity Club.

It has been found necessary to discharge the assistant
